Amelia Earhart Park Play Island Dedication Event

On February 7, 2015, residents joined staff from the Miami-Dade County Parks, Recreation and Open Spaces Department and Miami-Dade County District 13 Commissioner Esteban Bovo Jr. for the grand opening and dedication of the new playground at the popular "Tom Sawyer's Play Island" at Amelia Earhart Park, located at 401 E. 65 Street in Hialeah. A fort-style tree house with climbers, spinners, slides, balance beams, swings, and musical instruments to play are part of the new playground amenities, designed to keep children ages 2-12 active and engaged in the great outdoors. The fully-accessible playground area is approximately 7,500 square feet, making it the largest playground in the Miami-Dade County Parks system.
